THE POSITION

The City Attorney's Office seeks two well-qualified individuals. Significant municipal law experience is desirable for the position of Deputy City Attorney II, Deputy City Attorney III or Deputy City Attorney IV depending on experience.

The City Attorney may assign the selected attorney to new, additional or different duties or practice areas in either litigation or transactional work.

The City Attorney's Office provides legal advice and counsel to the City of Oakland municipal corporation. Services include drafting and reviewing contracts, legislation and other documents and possibly on occasion, providing litigation services in the defense of ordinances and other administrative actions. The City Attorney's Office provides counsel to the City Council, Council committees, Mayor, retirement and other City boards and commissions, various City-wide task forces and City agencies and departments. General Government & Finance attorneys handle matters including but not limited to, public works, public contracting, parks, taxes, municipal finance, grants and financial assistance, children's services, libraries, elections, conflicts of interest and open meeting, public records and constitutional issues. Incumbents perform a variety of professional legal duties involving civil municipal law issues. This is an unclassified position in which incumbents serve at the will of the City Attorney. Incumbents may receive general supervision from a Deputy City Attorney V, Special Counsel, Chief Assistant City Attorney or the City Attorney.

Attorneys in this diverse and exciting Office frequently work collaboratively with other attorneys and other City Departments on a wide variety of issues.

These attorneys' typical duties may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Performing legal research, interpreting and applying laws and court decisions
- Preparing legal opinions, ordinances, resolutions, contracts, deeds, leases and other legal documents; revising such documents as necessary to meet legal standards
- Acting in an advisory capacity at meetings of City Council, City boards and commissions; advising City departments on legal matters
- Reviewing staff reports; writing City Council reports
- Providing legal advice to negotiators and reviewing and drafting contracts
- Developing expertise in a particular area of municipal law
- Overseeing outside counsel
- Exercising sound judgment and clearly explaining legal advice to attorneys and lay people and defending legal analyses
- Responding to questions posed by members of the public
- Serving as counsel to City Council committees, boards and commissions
- Attending evening and late night meetings

Minimum Requirements for Application

Any combination of experience and education that would likely provide the required knowledge and abilities is qualifying. A typical way to obtain the knowledge and abilities would be:

Experience:

- Two years of increasingly responsible work experience comparable to a Deputy City Attorney II in the City of Oakland
